This Month's STAR RECIPE

By BETTY BARCLAY

My star recipe for this month is a pudding recipe — one that may be made even by the cook whose ration coupons are practically all used. And this pudding made almost entirely from unrationed foods will please both the adults and the children. It is economical; it is healthful and it is easy to prepare. That brings it pretty close to one hundred per cent perfect.

Cereal Pudding

3 tablespoons flour
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
¼ cup honey
2 eggs, beaten until thick fluffy
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup Grape-Nuts

Combine flour and salt in top of double boiler; add milk gradually, stirring until smooth. Add honey and blend. Cook and stir over boiling water 8 minutes. Pour small amount of mixture over eggs, stirring vigorously; return to double boiler and cook 2 minutes longer. Remove from fire; add butter and vanilla. Cool. Add cereal. Chill. Serves 6 to 8.

Tin Collection Hits All-Time High

Collection of tin in the War Salvage drive in Daly City hit an all-time high during the month of May, according to R. L. Crane jr., local salvage chairman. He announced that 15,780 pounds of tin were sent to the Metal and Thermit plant in South San Francisco from Daly City.

Pupils of the elementary schools act as collection agents and all householders are urged to cooperate in the drive. Crane reported that some local people still do not seem to grasp the fact that improperly prepared tins are of no value in the drive and, in fact, act as a "bottle-neck" in the program.

Wartime restrictions on the manufacture and distribution of winery and distillery products limit selection in many lines we normally stock. However, we are fortunate in that we have always featured the quality, advertised brands.

Manufacturers of these brands, although they have now converted their plants to making war goods, had previously built up tremendous reserve stocks for such an emergency.

So we can still supply, within limit, the popular, time-tested, known brands of beverages for our customers.

When Meat Is Scarce

By Frances Lee Barton

NOW is the time when all good women must come to the aid of the family with limited ration coupons. To such women I present a delicacy that will serve a family of six with less than a pound of meat:

Hamburger Pinwheels

½ cup finely chopped onions; 2 tablespoons fat; 1 teaspoon salt; dash of pepper; ⅓ cup fine soft bread crumbs; ⅓ cup milk; ¾ pound ground beef.

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1 teaspoon salt; 6 tablespoons shortening; ½ cup milk.

Saute onions in fat in covered saucepan 5 minutes; measure 2 tablespoons (reserving remainder for dough mixture). Combine 2 tablespoons sauteed onions, salt, pepper, bread crumbs, milk, and meat; mix thoroughly.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add remaining onions and mix lightly. Add milk gradually, stirring until soft dough is formed. Turn out immediately on lightly floured board and knead 15 seconds. Roll into 12 x 9-inch rectangle. Spread with meat mixture and roll lengthwise as for jelly roll, wetting edge to seal. Cut in 12 slices; place, cut-side up, on greased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 20 minutes, or until done. Serve hot with Green Pea Sauce. Serves 6.

Green Pea Sauce. Makes 2 cups cream sauce, browning the butter and dissolving 2 bouillon cubes in the milk. Add ¾ cup drained canned peas.

YOUTH—AND THE FUTURE

Never in history has there been a soft, safe and comfortable world for young men and women, leaving school days behind, to graduate into. There is no reason to think the future will bring any such world. And there is no honest reason to desire it, for softness begets softness, just as strong opposition breeds strong character.

The older brothers of this year's graduates emerged from school into a world of depression; today they are working and fighting heroically for Uncle Sam, calling on all the reserves of toughness and resourcefullness acquired in those bitter years. Their fathers and mothers weathered an earlier war, faced an equally chaotic world and did the best they could with it.

Current graduates must help to meet the challenge of a world to rebuild, a peace to be maintained. As history goes, it is not a new challenge—except to the generation which must meet it.

With the ink yet wet on their diplomas, this year's graduates will find no dearth of employment. Those who do not go into the service of their country will find unquestionable opportunity to try out their own wings in jobs of their own choosing. In the opinion of foremost industrialists they need not be concerned even at war's end that they will be "unwanted" economically as in the depression years. "There is demand enough in sight," declared shipbuilder Henry J. Kaiser to Washington State college students, "to keep every productive force in America working to capacity for 25 years! And it took a war to teach us our own tremendous production ability."

No, the world that lies ahead for the young men and women now leaving school will not be a soft and easy one. But it will be live, energetic and challenging. It will demand leaders and it will demand men and women trained to think, to study, to plan, to execute, to work with their hands. It will pay premiums for work well done. And it will offer rewards still for truth, for justice and for tolerance, as in years past and those to come.

Stretching Your Meat By Simple Addition

By BETTY BARCLAY

Don't worry about those little red coupons. Stretch your meat into delicious, main-course dishes by combining it with other healthful foods that are not rationed. Here are some swell suggestions right off our sizzling war-time griddle:

Kidney Stew with Cereal Dumplings

2 pound beef, veal, lamb, or pork kidneys
2 tablespoons butter or other fat
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups water
½ cup minced onions
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 recipe Cereal Dumplings

Wash kidneys thoroughly. Split in halves lengthwise and remove fat and tubes. Soak in cold salted water ½ to 2 hours; rinse, drain, and dry thoroughly. If kidneys are old or large, cover with cold water, bring slowly to a boil, and drain. Cut kidneys in ½-inch slices.

Saute kidney slices in fat 3 minutes. Add flour and cook 3 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Add water, onions, and seasonings and bring to simmering point. Add Cereal Dumplings. Cover and simmer 15 minutes. Serve immediately. Serves 5 to 6.

Cereal Dumplings

½ cup milk
1 tablespoon shortening
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 egg, well beaten
2½ cups 40% Bran Flakes, finely crushed
1 tablespoon minced onion

Scald milk and add shortening. Remove from fire. Add salt, pepper, and egg, mixing well. Add bran flakes and onion, and mix thoroughly. Shape into 1-inch balls. Drop dumplings into simmering meat stew, cover, and simmer 15 minutes. Makes 15 dumplings.

Baked Heart

½ beef heart (about 2 pounds)
2 tablespoons butter or other fat
1 cup sliced onions
½ cup finely cut celery
1 cup Grape-Nuts
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 whole cloves
Few drops Tabasco sauce

Wash heart thoroughly. Remove veins and arteries. Cut in about 6 pieces. Simmer in salted water 1 to 1½ hours, or until tender. Drain and measure 1½ cups stock. Remove fat from heart and cut heart in ¼-inch slices.

Melt butter in skillet; add onions and celery and saute until tender. Add ¾ cup Grape-Nuts. Combine with heart, stock, and seasonings. Turn into baking dish and sprinkle with remaining cereal. (If desired, garnish with thin onion rings which have been brushed with melted butter and paprika. Brush rings again during baking.) Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 40 minutes. Serves 4 to 6.

Tamale Pie

½ cup diced onion
1 tablespoon butter or bacon fat
1½ teaspoons chili powder
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup milk
½ cup Grape-Nuts Wheat-Meal
½ cup chopped cooked chicken, ham, or veal
½ cup drained kernel corn
¼ cup chili sauce

Saute onion in fat about 5 minutes, or until tender but not browned. Add chili powder, salt, and milk. Bring to a boil, add Wheat-Meal gradually, and cook 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Add meat, corn, and chili sauce; mix well. Turn into greased 9 x 4 x 2-inch baking dish. Brush top with melted fat. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 25 minutes. If necessary, place under broiler to brown. Cut into squares. Serves 3 to 4.

Post Toasties Meat Loaf

3 cups corn flakes
¾ cup milk
1 egg, unbeaten
1 cup ground cooked veal
1 cup ground cooked pork (fat removed)
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon minced onion
½ teaspoon sage
¾ cup diced celery
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons ketchup

Crush cereal slightly; add milk and egg. Add remaining ingredients in order given; mix well. Pack into greased 8 x 4 x 3-inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 1 hour. Makes 12 slices.

TOP LINE

DABBLE IN CAMOUFLAGE. The classic white cardigan, worn by teen-age CBS starlet Jane ("Bachelor's Children") Webb, conceals its practicability under the novel brown and red zig-zag trim and double row of crocheted edging. Highly functional, this Lanz design passes from the sports field to top a white cotton formal with chameleon-like propriety. Jane exhibits her costume coordinating capabilities by selecting a white blouse with decorative, matching collar motif. Capitalize on the variation possibilities for a summer standby. (From "Junior Miss," Chicago).

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

10% OF INCOME IS OUR QUOTA IN WAR BONDS

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

"THESE are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands it now deserves the love and thanks of man and woman. Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered."

HOWARD FAST

So wrote Thomas Paine during the dark days of the Revolutionary War, words as true today as when they were conceived. Thomas Paine was a poor corsetmaker in England, who came to America to seek a better way of life. His pamphlet, "Common Sense," was a leading weapon in crystallizing the sentiment of the American workers and farmers and bringing about the Revolutionary War.

An excellent novel about this great American, and a timely book to read now is "Citizen Tom Paine" by Howard Fast.

Howard Fast is a young man, still in his thirties. He is the author of "The Last Frontier" about the Cheyenne Indians, and "The Unvanquished," the novelized life of George Washington. Now with "Citizen Tom Paine" he easily ranks as one of America's leading historical novelists. At present, he is working for the Office of War Information.

* * *

Now that our dogs have gone to war, a good collection of dog stories is bound to strike a sympathetic chord in many a heart. Anyone who has ever had a dog of his own, or ever dreamed of having one some day, will cherish "The Fireside Book of Dog Stories" edited by Jack Goodman, a Book-of-the-Month Club book-dividend for May and June.

Among the most famous dog stories in this volume are "Bashan" from "A Man and His Dog" by Thomas Mann; "For the Love of a Man" from Jack London's "Call of the Wild"; "Verdun Belle" by Alexander Woollcott; "The Voice of Bugle Ann" by MacKinlay Kantor; and "Lassie Come-Home" by Eric Knight.

The introduction is written by James Thurber. "It did not take Man long—probably not more than a hundred centuries," Mr. Thurber says, "to discover that all the animals except the dog were impossible around the house. One has but to spend a few days with an aardvark or a llama, command a water buffalo to sit up and beg, to perceive how wisely Man set about his process of elimination and selection.

"This book," Mr. Thurber concludes, "contains much of Man's report on his dog, his tribute to it, his effort to understand the open-hearted and inscrutable, the simple and complicated animal. It is unfortunate that there can be no companion piece, set down by the dog, to complete the picture. He has not yet learned to communicate his thoughts to paper. But give him time. The planet has, after all, barely cooled off."

MILO'S MARKET DE LUXE

6315 MISSION ST.

FEATURED MEATS ARE CHOICE MEATS AT MILO'S

At Milo's you'll find we feature the better grades of meat—that's been our long-time policy. It's not accidental that Daly City housewives have come to depend on us for choice cuts of fine quality meats.

And our large volume permits us to have a full selection of the various cuts and kinds for your approval. For instance, even under present difficult market conditions, we are able to furnish our customers with an adequate supply of good beef.

Whatever your meat problems, bring them to Milo's — we are prepared and anxious to help solve them. Whether it's some kind of fresh meat, or flavorful cured ham or bacon, you'll find you

SAVE AT MILO'S

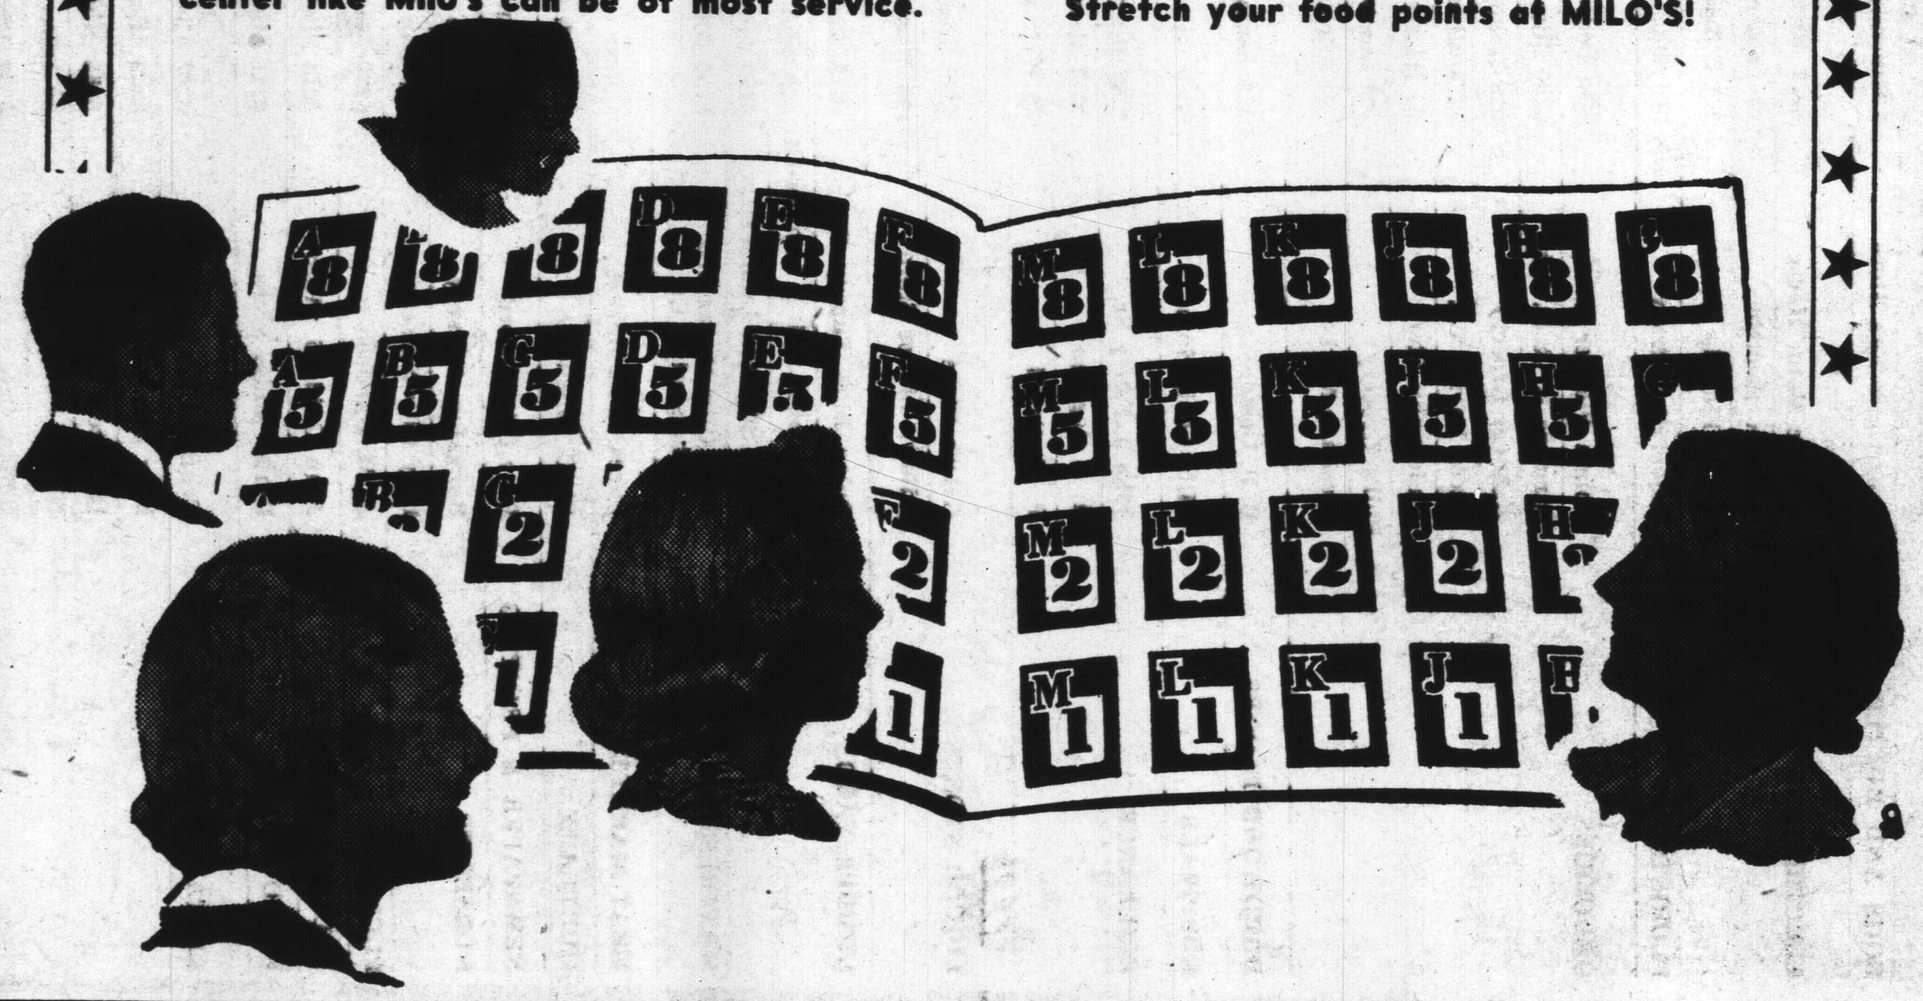
THAT'S ALL THE POINTS YOU GET!

No matter what your financial status, rich or poor, you cannot buy more rationed foods than your equal share. Your allotment is no more than your neighbor's, whether he is a banker or a laborer.

So you must spend points wisely—plan your purchases to provide well balanced meals throughout the rationing period. That's where a really BIG food shopping center like Milo's can be of most service. Let us advise how to best care for your family's needs.

Our food shops are all combined in one big, modern center, saving time and extra steps. All departments are here — quality groceries, select poultry and fresh fish, seasonal fresh vegetables and fruits, and a really big selection of kinds and cuts of fresh and cured meats.

Stretch your food points at MILO'S!



FARM · FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Give your family the finest natural foods in their most healthful form—crisp, nutritious vegetables and energy-packed fruits, fresh from the growers' markets.

With the produce season at its height, your selection of these foods is almost unlimited. Practically every type of vegetable and fruit is now featured in our big market.

Save your ration points by purchasing these foods fresh — and conserve processed goods for the use of our armed forces all over the world.

HOUSEWIVES—vary your menus and stretch meat allowances by serving our select POULTRY and FRESH FISH often. Your family (and your budget) will appreciate the change in fare.

Help Them Do Their Part!

If you are aiding the government's program of food production at home by raising Poultry, Rabbits, Pigeons or livestock, be sure you are doing it as well as possible.

For best results, use ALBERS or A-1 specialized feeds to help them through the various stages of growth, and for maximum egg, milk or meat production.

Some of the many feed mixes designed for specific results include: Baby Chick Starter, Growing Chick Mash, Chick Scratch, Start To Finish Mash, Utility Egg Mash, Laying Mash, Milk Control Mash, Calf Food, Rabbit Pellets and Pigeon Feed.

We also stock fancy new green Alfalfa Hay, whole and milled grains, brick salt, oyster shell, charcoal, poultry and livestock remedies.

LUCCA MEAT MARKET
